

Contributors

ALINA BAKO is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Romance Studies, Faculty of Letters and Arts, at the „Lucian Blaga” University of Sibiu. Her specialties are Twentieth-Century Romanian literature, Comparative Literature, Geocriticism, and World Literature. She published 6 books and anthologies, over 15 book chapters, over 40 articles in different Journals, and she participated in more than 45 national and international conferences. She wrote articles in the main field of literary geography, discussing concepts like geocriticism, geofeminism, world literature, research papers published in ISI-Web of Knowledge Journals like The Slavonic and East European Review (SEER) or World Literature Studies (WLS).

Lucian Vasile BÂGIU is a lecturer in Romanian language and literature at 1 Decembrie 1918 University of Alba Iulia and has been the journal manager of the Swedish Journal of Romanian Studies, Centre for Languages and Literature, Lund University, since October 2016. He received a Ph.D. in Philology, magna cum laude, in 2006 from Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca. He became a member of the Romanian Writers' Union in the same year. He has also occupied the position of lecturer of Romanian language at the Norwegian University of Science and Technology in Trondheim (2008-2011), Charles University in Prague (2012-2013), Lund University (2014-2017), and of tenured Senior Lecturer in Romanian Studies at Lund University (2020-2022). He is the author of several books on literary criticism, fiction, and language. Relevant publications include the following: Romania at Lund University, edited by Lucian Vasile Bâgiu, Aeternitas, 2019; Receptarea textului scris și oral. Manual de limba română pentru studenții străini/ Understanding Written and Oral Texts. A textbook on the Romanian language for international students, Aeternitas, 2018; Introduction in the Study of Romanian Language. A textbook for foreign students, Aeternitas, 2018; Despre Sebastian, Sorescu, Dosoftei, Derrida și limba română/ On Sebastian, Sorescu, Dosoftei, Derrida and the Romanian language (TipoMoldova, 2016, award for monograph ex aequo, Romanian Writers' Union, Alba-Hunedoara branch); Lucian Blaga și teatrul. Eseu despre absolutul estetic/ Lucian Blaga and the Theater. An Essay on the Absolute Aesthetic (TipoMoldova, 2014, award for essay, Romanian Writers' Union, Alba-Hunedoara branch); Valeriu Anania. Scriitorul/ Valeriu Anania. The Writer (Limes, 2006, award for criticism and literary history, Romanian Writers' Union, Alba-Hunedoara branch); Sânziana în Lumea Poveștilor/ Sânziana in the World of Fairy-Tales (TipoMoldova, 2015); Bestiar. Salată orientală cu universitari închipuiți/ Bestiary. Oriental Salad with self-conceited Academics (Cartea Românească, 2008).

Bianca BUCUR (TINCU) graduated from the Faculty of Letters in Cluj-Napoca in 2018, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philology and earned an M.A. degree in English language, literature and culture in a European context from the University of Alba Iulia. Her fields of interest include English literary studies, Modernism, Postmodernism, conceptual metaphors in literature and everyday speech. At present: PhD Philology student at “1 Decembrie 1918” University of Alba Iulia.

Gabriela CHICIUDEAN, Associate Professor, PhD in Philology since 2005, she teaches Theory of Literature, Literary Criticism, Introduction in the Science of Imaginary, Comparative Literature. She is the author of some individual volumes (Incursiuni în lumea simbolurilor, Sibiu, Imago Publishing House, 2004; Pavel Dan și globul de cristal al creatorului, The Romanian Academy Publishing House, 2007; Obiectiv/ Subiectiv. Încercări de stabilizare a fluidului, Tipomoldova Publishing House, 2013; Studii literare. Abordări pe suportul Stiintei imaginarului, The Romanian Academy Publishing House, 2016), and the co-author and coordinated of a few other volumes. She published many articles and studies in dedicated periodicals in Romania and abroad. She is the executive manager of Speculum Centre for the Study of Imaginary, 1 Decembrie 1918 University of Alba Iulia. She is the organizer of Speculum Conferences and the editor of Incursiuni în imaginar, the literary journal of Speculum Conferences, and editor of Swedish journal of Romanian studies, Lund, Sweden.

Ana-Blanca CIOCOI-POP has been a member of the Department of Anglo-American and German Studies at the “Lucian Blaga” University of Sibiu since 2008, teaching courses and seminars in early, Victorian and contemporary British literature, American literature, British and American culture and civilization, as well as English as a foreign language for courses for students outside the field of the Humanities, and an associate lecturer with the “Nicolae Bălcescu” Land Forces Academy of Sibiu since 2022. She was awarded a PhD in Letters in 2008 for a thesis focusing on the constructive skepticism evincible in the works of Franz Kafka, William Golding and Jeffrey Eugenides. She has published extensively in the field of literary, postcolonial, and feminist studies. Among her most recent research interest are geocriticism and translation studies, as well as strategies for teaching English to members of the military.

Alexandra COSTEA (PASCU) is a PhD student at “1 Decembrie 1918” University of Alba Iulia, developing a thesis on the theme Ion Pop Reteganul in the Context of 19th Century Folkloristics: Poetics and Politics. She is also a Romanian and English language and literature teacher and a member of the Speculum Centre for the Study of Imaginary, 1 Decembrie 1918 University of Alba Iulia.

Alexandru FOITOȘ is currently a PhD student at the Faculty of Letters, History and Theology, West University of Timișoara, where he also teaches. His major interest is academic research in fields such as Romanian Literature (Modernity and Avant-Garde), Stylistics and Poetics, but also the use of digital tools and quantitative studies in domains such as Literature, Stylistics or Poetic Lexicography. His doctoral thesis, coordinated by Prof. Dr. Habil. Florica Bodiștean, focuses on the marginal(ized) Romanian avant-garde, aiming to draw attention on “forgotten” writers from specific contexts, such as the exile avant-garde, the esoteric avant-garde, and the feminine avant-garde.

Andra Gabriela HOLHOȘ is a Teacher of English and Spanish at Sports High School, Alba Iulia. She graduated from the Faculty of Letters in Cluj-Napoca (2010), master degree (2012). She is a member of the Research Center on the Imaginary “Speculum” (2015). Relevant publications include the following: articles and critical studies published in collective volumes (Incursions into the Imaginary, 2017, 2018; Education from the Perspective of Values. Ideas, Concepts, Models, 2014-2019), in cultural and scientific periodicals (Annales Universitatis Apulensis. Series Philologica, Alba Iulia, Journal of Romanian Literary Studies, Târgu Mureș). Co-author Lecturi sumare (2020).

Maria HOLHOȘ is a Ph.D, with the work The Fairy Tale - source of knowledge (2009). She is a Member of The Research Center on the Imaginary “Speculum” (2007) and author of the volumes: Basmul – lecturi critice (2010), The Fairy Tale - moments of reference (2011), Lecturi sumare (co-author) (2020). She also published articles and critical studies in collective volumes (Incursions into the Imaginary, 2007-2011, 2017, 2018; Education from the Perspective of Values. Ideas, Concepts, Models, 2013-2019) and cultural and scientific periodicals (Annales Universitatis Apulensis. Series Philologica, Alba Iulia, Journal of Romanian Literary Studies, Târgu Mureș).

Cristina ILEA (ROGOJINĂ): PhD in Philology with a thesis on the Anthroponymy of the Romanian folktale She has a BA in Romanian and English Language and Literature followed by an MA in Romanian Studies (Faculty of Letters at Ovidius University of Constanța). She is an Assistant professor in the Department of Romanian Philology, Classical and Balkan Languages at the above named university. She is also a member of Speculum, a Research Center of the Imaginary (Alba Iulia) and Classical Studies Society (Bucharest) and is interested in folklore, language and naming.

Rebeca-Rahela MARCHEDON is a Ph.D. Student in Philology at „1 Decembrie 1918” University of Alba Iulia, and a researcher in comparative literature. Her research perspectives are rooted in cultural studies and interdisciplinary field: psychology (childhood trauma, psychopathology and psychoanalysis), Romanian & English contemporary literature and linguistics. She is also a member of the Center for philological research and multicultural dialog (CCFDM) and a member of the "Ovidiu Bârlea" Ethnology Circle from Faculty of History, Letters and Educational Sciences - „1 Decembrie 1918” University of Alba Iulia. She is the author of the book chapter: The language of a psychopath and its influence on childhood trauma in the autobiographical novel A Child Called 'It' by Dave Pelzer, published in the collective volume, New Insights into the Mental Lexicon, Newcastle upon Tyne, UK, Cambridge Scholars Publishing. Relevant publications, based on childhood trauma and behavioral disorders, include the following: Raporturi identitare în imaginarul Cameliei Cavadia – Vina, Măștile fricii, Purgatoriul îngerilor; Pe o singură voce – O cronică a grotescului și maladivului în figurile victimei și agresorului; Limelfia – Între reclusiune socială și fantezie a imaginației; Comparative psychoanalytic research through transgenerational dispersion – Camelia Cavadia, Măștile fricii.

Aritina MICU, Teacher of Romanian Language and Literature at “Brassai Samuel” Theoretical High School, Cluj-Napoca. PhD Ass. With scholarship at “1 Decembrie 1918” University Alba Iulia, Faculty of History and Philology, Department Philology. Member of the Research Center of the Imaginary “Speculum”, Faculty of History and Philology of „1 Decembrie 1918”. Published articles: Amantul Colivăresei sau mahalaua „omului nou”/ The Lover of Colivăreasa or the slum of the new man in the volume of the conference Globalization, Intercultural Dialogue and National Identity (2014), Dragoste și sexualitate în romanele lui G.M. Zamfirescu/Love and Sexuality in the novels of G.M. Zamfirescu in the international conference volume Communication, Context, Interdisciplinarity (2014), Mahalaua-oglinzi românești contemporane/ The Slum – Contemporary Romanian Mirrors in the international conference volume Literature, Discourse and Multiculturale Dialogue 2nd edition (2014), Fetele „îngerului negru” în lumea periferiei/ Faces of the black angel in the world of the periphery, in the international conference volume Globalization, Intercultural Dialogue and National Identity 2nd edition (2015) and Petru Cimpoeșu sau comprimarea mahalalei într-o scară de bloc/ Petru Cimpoeșu or the compression of the slum in the staircase of a block of flats in the international conference volume Literature, Discourse and Multiculturale Dialogue 3rd edition (2015), „Mahalaua decăzuților”/The Slum of the Fallen – reconfiguring the literary space in Diplomatul, tăbăcarul și actrița/ The Diplomat, the tanner and the actress in vol. Incursiuni în imaginar/ Incursions into the imaginary (2018), Panaît Istrati sau revolta marginalului /Panaît istratie or the revolt of the marginal in vol. FESTSCHRIFT. Mircea Braga-80 (2018)

Maria MUREȘAN: Dr. Maria Mureșan is lecturer at the Department of Philology and currently teaches Business English, Oral and Written Communication in Business, Commercial Correspondence in the field of Business Administration, Marketing and Tourism and Services at the Faculty of Economics. Her main interests include teaching English for business studies (readings from newspapers, works of non-fiction and college textbooks to illustrate the use of target structures in English), translation studies.

She is the author of 2 books, articles and book chapters; she is the co-organizer of In Extenso Business English Conference for Students in Economics (Alba Iulia, 2011-2020) and of CMKS international conferences Career Management in Knowledge based Society, Alba Iulia, 2013-2020.

Felix NICOLAU is a Romanian philologist, lecturer of Romanian Language and Literature at the Complutense University of Madrid and professor at the Technical University of Civil Engineering, Bucharest, Department of Foreign Languages and Communication. He is associated with the Romanian Language Institute in Bucharest and with the Doctoral School of the "1 Decembrie 1918" University of Alba Iulia, Romania. He is the editor of the Swedish Journal of Romanian Studies at the University of Lund, Sweden, where he taught for 4 years, and of Madrid based literary magazine Littera Nova.

He has published several books of poetry and two novels: Kamceatka. Time is Honey, Pe mâna femeilor, Tandru și rece, Bach, manele și Kostel, Cucerirea răsului, Salonul de invenții, as well as theoretical books: Ingen fara pâ taket/ Totul e sub control. Lär dig rumänska/ Învățã limba română; You Are not Alone. Culture and Civilization, Morpheus: from Text to Images. Intersemiotic Translation; Take the Floor. Professional Communication Theoretically Contextualized; Cultural Communication: Approaches to Modernity and Postmodernity; Homo imprudens.

Iuliana PĂUNESCU. PhD student at the University 1 Decembrie 1918 in Alba Iulia, the Philology Doctoral School. She graduated from "Lucian Blaga" University of Sibiu. She is a teacher of English at "Regina Maria" National Pedagogical College, Deva, with several important responsibilities in the pre-university field. During the last years, she has published several articles in specialized periodicals and participated in international conferences. She is author of auxiliaries for teaching English, and a keen researcher in Romanian fantasy literature, especially in Vasile Voiculescu's Stories.

Prof. dr. habil. Maria-Ana TUPAN is currently appointed to the Doctoral School of Alba Iulia University, Romania. From 1991 to 2014 she taught courses in the history of British literature and in applied literary theory at Bucharest University. Senior Fulbright Grantee in 1994-5. Author of 17 books, book chapters and articles published in Romania, U.K., Germany, India, Australia and U.S.A.. Publications in the fields of literary history and theory, comparative literature, genre theory, discourse analysis, and cultural studies.

Relevant titles include Phenomenology and Cultural Difference in High Modernism (Newcastle upon Tyne: Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2023), The Shakespearean Search for Archetypes. The Mirror and the Signet (Newcastle upon Tyne: Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2020), The Key to Change. Interdisciplinary Essays in Cultural History (Saarbrücken: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing, 2017), The Kantian Legacy of Late Modernity (Newcastle upon Tyne: Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2016), Realismul magic (Editura Academiei Române, 2013), Relativism/ Relativity: The History of a Modern Concept. (Newcastle upon Tyne: Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2013), Modernismul si psihologia. Încercare de epistemologie literara. Modernism and Psychology. An Inquiry into the Epistemology of Literary Modernism (Editura Academiei Române, 2009); Genre and Postmodernism (Editura Universitatii din Bucuresti, 2008).

Cristina Matilda VĂNOAGĂ is a PhD lecturer at the University of Alba Iulia. Her PhD thesis, The Significance of Topoi in Andrei Codrescu's Prose, was published in 2019 by Tracus Arte Publishing House, in its Romanian variant. She is specialised in the analysis of discourse and mentalities in the literary texts. She is a translator specialised in theology, and her latest translation is Michael Keiser's Spread the Word: Reclaiming the Apostolic Tradition of Evangelism. Her current research interests are contemporary culture and identity in relation with the theories of imaginary, virtuality, and diplomacy.